

Rules for the OPEN UP 2022 camp

Participant's rights and obligations :

1. During the camp stay in a safe environment, and do not go outside the camp area;
2. Strictly follow the instructions of the camp leader and instructors and do not execute activities that are not planned in the camp program without their permission;
3. Undertake to follow the camp program daily;
4. Build relationships based on respect and compassion, both with camp participants and leaders;
5. Strictly follow all internal rules and security regulations of the camp;
6. You are responsible for your property;
7. You are under the supervision of the leaders and do not arbitrarily leave the territory of the recreation center "Jumurdas manor";
8. Do not physically or morally harm other participants in the camp;
9. Treat the camp's equipment with care and do not pollute the environment;
10. Swimming and being near the water are only under the supervision of the leader;
11. You are responsible for your health and preparedness for the event;
12. Immediately inform the camp's manager or leader if you are injured or suffered an incident;
13. Follow the directions of the leader;
14. Do not damage or break the equipment of the recreation center, in case of damage your legal guardians must cover the cost of damage;
15. It is not allowed to stay in rooms where the participant is not allocated a bed. Do not leave the sleeping room, use mobile phones, or disturb others during the conversation during the silent hour set by the program;
16. It is allowed to leave the territory of the recreation center only with the permission of the main manager (Dace Rasova-Zvirgzdiņa);
17. The use of alcohol or drugs, as well as smoking is not allowed within the camp;
18. If the behavior of a participant is disturbing and unacceptable to other participants and camp leaders, or several violations of the camp rules are found, the participant must leave the "Jumurda's manor". If the participant is under 18 years of age, the legal guardians who are required to pick up the participant or arrange a way to get home will be notified. The camp participation fee is non-refundable and travel expenses are not covered.

By signing, you undertake to follow and comply with the above-mentioned camp security and rules of procedure.